

Fahad Khan

MERN Stack Developer

Solving real-world problems by using JavaScript, it gives multiple way to think as broad-minded. Programming made me passionate, Nature made me curious & life made me rock-hard. Having 2+ years of experience in Web-Development, I had published dozens of web tech articles on multiple online platforms. Using web tech I had understood the relation & cooperation of various tech for single responsibility.

INTERESTS

Curious to learn modern techs. And love to write about web technology. Reading tech articles with coffee is like, a computer with a processor.
